wLitecoin Whitepaper

You need wLitecoin to farm Litecoin

About

Introduction

While Decentralized Finance (DeFi) continues to make waves and maintain its parabolic growth, yield farming remains a popular tool for generating returns from long-term holdings. For the uninitiated, yield farming is simply the act of staking your assets into a platform to earn yield.

Our vision is to be a leading litecoin farm on the Binance Smart Chain platform, possessing transparent and fair metrics and bringing many returns.

Platform

We choose Binance Smart Chain as the main platform rather than Ethereum for Yield farming because Ethereum has been facing extreme network congestion. Gas price has increased dramatically, even for simple transactions. Increasing the gas price has made it impossible for many users to use the Ethereum blockchain because it is no longer economically viable. Therefore, we choose the Binance Smart Chain platform, which will be better for all users of wLitecoin.

DeFi on Ethereum is mainly given to more giant whales who have hundreds of thousands of dollars. They will gradually migrate to the Binance Smart Chain Network in the future, which is the leading advantage of wLitecoin. We have a farm for top coins, in which Litecoin are the leading coins.

The key points of wLitecoin are eliminating excessive incentives, distributing rewards fairly, and removing financial barriers for small-scale investors.

NFT Marketplaces

The type of Yield farming that doesn't interest you is a bunch of NFTs. We allow users to create their own NFTs, buy and sell NFTs with wLitecoin on the NFT Marketplace platform. You will enjoy it. It will be coming soon!

NFT Marketplaces

Deposit NFT to get assets. Users can use any wBitcoin or wDogecoin cryptographic token to use NFTs, which are randomly generated and can be classified into five groups: bronze, silver, gold, platinum, and diamond to determine the mining power of NFT.
